

Dear Parents/Guardians:

September 30th - October 5th is Homecoming Week. Homecoming is a time we welcome back alumni and promote school spirit. The Student Council has worked very hard to provide activities during the week to increase school spirit and unity.

New London High School wants to ensure students have a safe and enjoyable week. To make this possible, we need your help! As many of you know, there are inappropriate activities that take place during the week that are not supported by the high school. They include, but are not limited to, toilet papering, egging, shaving cream, etc. Students involved in these activities face the school consequence of not participating in Homecoming events, in addition to other consequences that fall under our student handbook and activity code of conduct. Students involved in these activities are also subject to police involvement, as outlined in the NLPD Homecoming Guidelines below.

Each year, we receive vandalism complaints and deal with student drama caused by inappropriate activities during what should be a fun and exciting week. Your help is appreciated in reinforcing NLHS and NLPD expectations.

Thank you for your support, and we look forward to having a great Homecoming week!

Go Dogs!!!!
